

YOU'RE INVITED!
to the Library's
Second Annual Spring Cleaning Pizza Party

Attention All Faculty Members

CSM Library invites you to our Second Annual Spring Cleaning Pizza Party!

WHO: All full-time and adjunct faculty

WHEN: Friday, March 23, 2007
1 to 5 p.m.

WHERE: The library (Building 9)

WHY: Spring is here, and we need your subject expertise to help us decide what to prune from our collection, what classics to repot, and what new seeds to plant.

This is a great chance for you to (re)acquaint yourself with the library's holdings in your subject area and have some fun socializing with your peers at the same time.

Stop by, have some pizza, and tell us what we're missing – and what's crowding out the sunlight. Don't let your department go unrepresented!

RSVP to David Gibbs (gibbsd@smccd.edu), so we'll know how much pizza to order and whether you have any special requests (vegetarian or otherwise).

If you can't make this event, let us know and we'll schedule another time for you to come in and evaluate the collection.
