

Sustainability Career Fair

This exciting event connected students with local employers and highlighted pathways into the green economy. Students explored careers, asked questions, and gained insight into how education can translate into sustainability-focused professions. More Photos

Drag Show @ CSM

CSM's annual drag show, hosted by the Pride Center and ASCSM Equity Affairs Board, featured the Rice Rockettes, a San Francisco AANHPI drag troupe, creating a vibrant, inclusive celebration of culture, identity, and community. Check Out the Reel

Summit Short Film Festival

CSM's Summit Film Festival showcased original student films, providing a platform for student filmmakers to share their work. Presented by the Film and Production Club with support from the Film department, the event highlighted emerging creative talent on campus. View Pics

Bulldog Softball's Historic Run

CSM Softball is putting together one of the most remarkable seasons in program history, with a 48-game winning streak, a 33-1 overall record as of April 14, and continued momentum in conference play. Head Coach Nicole Quigley-Borg also reached her 700th career win in March, marking another major milestone for an already extraordinary season. Hear from students on the team.

Bulldog Baseball Gains Momentum

CSM Baseball is hitting its stride with a strong late-season push, highlighted by key conference wins and a consistent offense. The Bulldogs are building momentum and positioning themselves for a competitive postseason run.

Celebrating Faculty Tenure

CSM recently honored nine faculty members who earned tenure following a rigorous four-year evaluation process that includes classroom observations, student feedback, and review of professional growth. This year's tenure recipients are Cheyanne Cortez, Zulema Esparza, Susan Khan, Melissa (Ehm) Manuofetoa, Edgar Villegas Mojica, Tasia Scott, Kevin Sibucac, Lia Thomas, and Sujata Verma. The celebration recognized their dedication to teaching, student engagement, and academic excellence across the College. More Photos

